VETERANS DAY

Whereas October 22, 1973, will mark the first observance of Veterans Day since the cessation of hostilities in Vietnam; and

Whereas more than forty-six thousand Americans lost their lives and more than three hundred thousand were wounded in action in the Vietnam conflict; and

Whereas the Vietnam engagement was the longest war in the history of the United States and was marked with controversy both at home and abroad; and

Whereas the American military man withstood these adverse conditions and served with valor and courage; and

Whereas the loyalty and devotion to duty of the American serviceman was of the highest order and played an important role in making peace negotiations possible: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Congress hereby expresses its gratitude, and pays its respects, to Vietnam veterans on Veterans Day 1973 for their gallant part in attaining peace in Vietnam and making it possible to observe Veterans Day 1973 in peace.
